Education

I have studied Software Development Primarily focusing on Mobile Development at HackerU college 2015 - 2017 and in my free time at home. I have gained thorough understanding in OOP of JAVA for Android and Swift 4 IOS os.

Likewise I studied full-stack development including html, css, js, nodeJs, and Express framework. knowing the in's and out's of front-end and back-end programming.

I have knowledge in the fundamentals of Python and Flask framework

Experience

- Currently (for the last 6 month) a Mobile dev team lead in a promising start-up located in Tel Aviv area with an android alpha version app in the Google-play store.
- Worked as an IOS developer for a small organization in Bet Shemesh For 5 month and was forced to leave due to lack of fundings and the org's disability to pay me and my co-workers
- Developed solely a promising Android app in the e-commerce field named: Cheap-It. It is currently standing as an alpha version in the google-play due to legal issues from competitors. The opt-in link to the app is:
